

Kalamazoo County passes transit tax by wide margin

By Ed Brayton 5/6/09 1:08 AM

While the cities in Kent County voted down their transit millage request, Kalamazoo County passed theirs by a 63-37 margin. The .4 mill tax for the next four years will allow the Kalamazoo County Transportation Authority to continue running without having to cut services like Care-A-Van, which transports seniors and the disabled.